Gen. Selden Connor,

OF AUGUSTA,

the Republican candidate for Governor of Maine and

Hon. Oliver P. Morton,

OF INDIANA,

the famous War Governor, present distinguished [illegible] from that State, will address the [illegible] of Bangor in Norombega Hall on Thursday evening, August 26, at 7½ o'clock.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN CLUB.

In response to the wishes of many of our most influential citizens a call is published elsewhere for a meeting of the Republicans of Bangor at Cornet Hall this evening at 7½ o'clock, for the organization of a Republican Campaign Club, through which the organized effort may be rendered most effective during the three weeks which now remain for work before the election. We hope that our leading citizens will give [illegible] encouragement to this movement by their presence and participation, and that Bangor Republicanism will be fully represented at the meeting.

THREE WEEKS FOR WORK.

Only three weeks remain in which to do whatever remains to be done to insure Republican success at our annual election with the largest possible majorities. Thus far the Democrats have made the most [illegible] their own party has contented itself [illegible] with the putting forward of candidates for the public support. The Republicans of Maine, however, have always had a fashion of working [illegible] and of putting their whole energy into the work during the last weeks immediately preceding election. The time has now arrived for our friends to arouse themselves in earnest and [illegible] the [illegible] achievements by the vigor with which they will devote the next three weeks to the work of bringing out the Republican strength at the polls.

While it is customary for party journals [illegible] to urge the special importance of [illegible] it will require but slight reflection to convince any thoughtful [illegible] that the present is in many respects the most important contest since the [illegible] of Republicanism were first established in Maine. Hitherto since our first victories while great importance has attached to the influence of our State [illegible] been almost the moral certainty of [illegible] in the country at large [illegible] party has gone on from conquering [illegible]. The serious reverses of last Fall attributable to various causes, but [illegible] any restoration of public confidence in the Democratic party, still inured to the benefit of that dangerous organization and [illegible] leaders with the hope of gaining control of the National Administration in the centennial year of our independence. The [illegible] of such hopes has rendered the Democracy unduly arrogant and the [illegible] which have since taken place have indicated that the people have not decided [illegible] the party which first [illegible] and then conducted a five hold [illegible] rebellion. The tide has already turned [illegible] the country hundreds of [illegible] still watching the act of the [illegible] and any heavy falling off in the Republican strength of sturdy Maine would encourage our opponents and correspondingly dishearten our friends who are working in other States. In Ohio [illegible] the great battle between an honest [illegible] and the rumors [illegible] of political demagogues is being fought for the whole country, the friends of sound money are eagerly waiting for encouragement from Maine, while the inflationists are as eagerly hoping to be able to point to gains for their party in this State. In point of national influence no election in Maine was ever more important or entitled to the active exertions of all who would save the country from untold disasters.

But our election is also of the highest importance in its local bearings. No sane and intelligent man should be misled by the unreasoning cry of "a change" which is the sole appeal of the Democratic party. The efficiency, honesty and economy with which the affairs of Maine have been administered under Republican rule have become proverbial throughout the country and when the people make a "change" they will desire to be very well assured that it is to be for the better. Does any one suppose that the finances, the educational interests, the public institutions, the cause of temperance, of public morals and the general good order and welfare of the people, would be better cared for by an administration of which Gen. C. W. Roberts would be the nominal head, with Marcellus Emery, Eben F. Pillsbury and a few other kindred spirits as the controlling power? The question answers itself. And yet the query strikes directly at the core of this election, for all know that the Democratic candidate for Governor would be but as clay in the hands of the potters who would mould him to their will. It is time to look this matter squarely in the face and not permit personal complaisance to interfere with the performance of a citizen's highest duty. That person is inexcusable who fails to understand just what type of Democracy is to actually reap all the advantages from votes for Gen. Roberts, and if, understanding the fact, such person does not recognize it as the very worst which has ever shown itself in Maine, his opinions must be peculiar.

For the credit of our State, of our noble Congressional District and of our City, every true Republican should put out of sight all minor differences and join heartily with his neighbors in effectual effort which shall serve to keep our record bright. A great deal can be done in the three weeks which remain, and we hope to see the Republicans of Bangor taking hold at once with that spirit of earnestness and energy which our opponents have learned to dread.

DEMOCRATIC FINANCES.

[From the Portland Press.]

The Democratic papers and orators promise us great things when they are permitted to manage the National finances. They tell us that taxes will be reduced and give us to understand that the expenditures will be cut down in an astonishing way. Now we certainly have a right to judge of the future by the past, and what is the record of the last Democratic administration respecting the National finances? The first Congress in Buchanan's administration so modified the tariff as to deprive the Treasury of a large amount of the revenue while the expenditures were increased over those of the previous administration, and as the result there was a deficiency every year and a national debt [illegible] in time of peace. The following figures from official reports will indicate the character of Democratic financiering in Buchanan's palmy days:

NET REVENUE.

Fiscal year	1857-8	$46,655,365 96
	1858-9	53,486,465 64
	1859-60	56,064,607 83
	1860-1	41,509,930 39

ORDINARY EXPENDITURES.

Fiscal year	1857-8	$71,185,270 30
	1858-9	69,070,976 74
	1859-60	63,130,598 39
	1860-1	66,546,644 89

From the above it will be seen that Democratic statesmanship under the administration of President Buchanan increased the debt of the National Government about $75,000,000 and this, too, in a time of peace. The Treasury was not only practically bankrupt, but the credit of the Government was so nearly destroyed that Mr. Buchanan's Secretary of the Treasury found the greatest difficulty in placing a small issue of six per cent bonds. Indeed, the Secretary was authorized early in February, 1861, to issue $18,415,000 six per cent bonds to meet the current expenses, for which he received but $16,395,223.30, the discount being $2,019,776.70! And now Democratic papers denounce the administration because it went to about the same expense to exchange several hundred millions of five per cent bonds for six per cent, which the confidence that the prudent management of the Republican administration had inspired enabled it to do. The fact cannot be controverted that the reckless and unpatriotic character of the last Democratic administration so impaired the confidence of moneyed men that Mr. Buchanan's Secretary could not place a $10,000,000 loan. Such is the record of the last era of Democratic management of the National finances. Prudent people will want no more of it.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN.

REPORT OF SENATOR THURMAN'S PRIVATE VIEWS—DEMOCRATIC DEFEAT CONCEDED, AND SAM CARY AND THE CATHOLIC PRIESTS DENOUNCED—THURMAN DENIES THE REPORT AND ITS AUTHOR SWEARS TO ITS TRUTH.

The following interesting despatch appeared in the N. Y. Times of Friday, and as the matter has excited considerable interest in Ohio we present it to our readers:

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19. Wednesday morning the Leader contained the following letter from Put-in-Bay, Ohio, over the signature of "Visitor": "On Sunday morning about 11 o'clock, Senator Thurman and Mr. Cook of Cincinnati, were sitting in front of the West House at Put-in-Bay and there two in presence of a third party engaged in an earnest and mournful conversation upon the Democratic ticket and prospects in this State. Mr. Cook in the course of the conversation, expressed the opinion of Sam Cary that he was too much of a dead-weight for the party to carry and that the party made a great mistake in nominating him, so much so that the ticket was in absolute danger of defeat.

Mr. Thurman responded, saying that he agreed with Mr. Cook, that he had no respect for Mr. Cary, as he considered him a mere political adventurer, narrow minded, perfectly unprincipled, with an active mind but totally unbalanced. He believed him to be an unscrupulous demagogue, one whose great forte is to appeal to the passions of his hearers. In fact he considered Cary to be an out-and-out Communist. As for himself the Senator said under no circumstances would he speak at the same meeting where Sam Cary was to speak for his own self-respect forbade him to be seen in his company. He said he never heard Cary but twice in his life, and did not wish to hear him again under any circumstances so great was his feeling of contempt for that hypocritical temperance spouter. He heard him deliver a temperance lecture in Columbus, from the west end of the State House, some years ago, but his vituperative abuse of men who dealt in liquors was so violent and slanderous that he only remained a few minutes and came away disgusted. The next time he heard Sam was at Zanesville, during the campaign of 1873, where he (Thurman) had an appointment to speak. When he arrived at the place of meeting he found much to his surprise that Sam Cary was announced as one of the speakers, and he was compelled in spite of himself to listen to him.

Mr. Cook remarked that it was very unfortunate for the Democracy that the Catholic question had been brought in, that it was going to result in many Democrats voting with the Republicans, and in many more staying away from the polls. He feared that this alone would lose the State to the Democracy.

Mr. Thurman replied, emphatically, 'Yes we shall lose the State. The priests have overdone the thing by sticking their noses into our politics, and they deserve to be beaten, to teach them their place. The Democracy only have themselves to blame in submitting to the demands of the priests in the way they did. It was unfortunate indeed, that the Catholic question was lugged into the campaign. The Democracy was the only party that ever did anything for the Catholics, and it would seem that the more that is done for them the more they will demand. Their arrogance is insufferable, and as we shall be defeated anyway, I hope it will hereafter teach these meddlesome priests a lesson that they would understand—that is, to let politics alone. I for one, don't propose to stand any further nonsense from these fellows."

The Senator went on to defend the position he took in his Mansfield speech, saying that he had been most outrageously abused and misrepresented by the Republican press; that had he come out flat-footedly in opposition to the financial plank in the State platform he would have been more bitterly abused by his own party press, that he was accused by the Republican press for the position he had taken in that speech; therefore, that position was the best for his own personal interest.

The above report of the conversation is correct, as far as statements uttered were concerned. The language may vary a little. His expression in regard to Cary, the priests, and acknowledging that the State is lost, are given in his exact language.

This morning a telegram signed A. G. Thurman, was received by the Leader saying: "The letter signed 'Visitor' is a tissue of falsehoods." The Leader [illegible] the correspondent Mr. E. D. Nelson, who writes to the Leader a second letter saying that he was seated on the lawn in front of Put-in-Bay House, Sunday, reading a newspaper, when Senator Thurman and Mr. Cook came out and seated themselves about four feet from him. They carried on their conversation openly and unreservedly, and obliged him to hear or move his seat. Accompanying the letter is an affidavit, sworn to before a Notary Public, in which Mr. Nelson affirms that the conversation, as reported in Wednesday's Letter, is true in every particular, so far as the sentiments therein are concerned. This matter creates considerable interest among the members of both political parties.

NORTH CAROLINA.

[From the Lewiston Journal.]

The attempts of the Democratic papers to belittle the late Republican success in North Carolina, are vain. The figures are too stubborn and point to the most extraordinary revolution in popular feeling which the year has thus far shown, though we believe that the fall elections will show others of a still more startling character. In August of last year, after a vigorous canvass, the Democrats carried the State by a majority of 14,000 on the vote for Superintendent of Instruction, and 21,000 on the vote for Congressman. The election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention a week ago, was expected without a shadow of doubt to result in a large Democratic majority. In reality it showed a Republican majority of 10,000 votes, indicating a Republican gain of 30,000 votes since August, last year.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Post has begun to chant its annual "encouraging Democratic tidings from Maine." It does well to chant them before election, for it never has a chance to do so after the returns are received.—[Boston Journal.

The real purpose of the movement for persuading Gov. Allen to withdraw from the Gubernatorial canvass in Ohio is that his friends want to push him for the Presidency, and they do not think he would have much prestige if he should be as badly whipped in the Governorship campaign as seems now probable.

There seems to be a probability that Sunset Cox will be sacrificed on the Tilden altar. The Troy Press, for example, would like to see Cox in the Speaker's chair, but sagely suggests that the Democracy of New York cannot afford to furnish both a Speaker and a President. Any serious effort to get the Speakership for Cox it considers impolitic, as it would damage Tilden's chances for the Presidential nomination.

According to the New York Times, while the crusade against the school system is less openly prosecuted in New York than in Ohio, it is not less really one of the issues at stake. Every Democratic legislator subject to Tammany Hall may be reckoned on, it says, as a thick-and-thin supporter of any measure the Church may demand.

The State Committee of the New York Liberal Republicans have resolved not to act with either of the political parties, but to hold a convention of their own. The greater portion of the Liberal voters, however, will undoubtedly act with the Republicans as they are not held at all in control by their committee.

The Chairman of the Republican State Committee of Iowa reports the most encouraging prospects in all sections of the State. A good array of speakers are appointed for work on the stump and the indications point to an active canvass and a brilliant Republican victory.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL COLLINS.

Following close upon the death of the gallant commander of the "Cumberland," comes the announcement of that of another distinguished officer of our Navy, Rear Admiral Napoleon Collins, commanding the South Pacific fleet, which occurred at Callao, Peru, on the 9th inst. He died of erysipelas after an illness of three days, and was buried with naval honors in the Protestant Cemetery at Bella Vista, near Callao. Rear Admiral Collins was a native of Pennsylvania and entered the Navy from that State in 1834. During the Mexican war he was at Tuspan and Tobasco, but nothing notable occurred in his career till the civil war during which he was actively engaged in naval operations. He commanded the steamer Anacostia in the Potomac squadron in 1861, and took part in the engagement at Acquia Creek on the 31st of May in that year. He afterward received command of the Gunboat Unadilla and was about a year with the fleet stationed off the coast of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. During this period he took part in the battle of Port Royal, and in several naval enterprises. In July 1862, he was made commander and had charge of the steamer Octorara in the West India squadron. In 1863 he was transferred to the steam sloop Wachusett and sent in pursuit of Confederate privateers. While thus engaged Commander Collins arrived, October 5th, 1864, off the Brazilian port of Bahia, which the corsair Florida had just entered, anchoring amid the Brazilian fleet and directly under the guns of the principal fort. Finding that he could not provoke the Florida to fight him outside the harbor, Commander Collins bore down upon her early in the morning of the 7th, intending to crush in her side and sink her, but he only succeeded in damaging her. A few small-arm shots were fired on either side, but at random and without effect. Commander Collins now demanded her surrender, and as the captain with half his crew were ashore, the lieutenant in command deemed it best to comply. In an instant the Florida was boarded from the Wachusett, a hawser was made fast to her, and the captor, crowding all steam, put out to sea, making no reply to a challenge from the Brazilian fleet, and unharmed by the shots fired after her from the fort. The Wachusett and her prize soon appeared at Hampton Roads, where the latter was conveniently sunk by a collision a few days afterward. Brazil having complained that her neutrality had been violated in this affair, Secretary Seward disavowed the act of Commander Collins who was tried by court-martial and as a matter of form suspended. Public sentiment was, however, in favor of the gallant officer, and in July, 1866, Commander Collins was commissioned Captain and placed in command of the steam sloop Sacramento. In August, 1874, he was raised to Admiral and placed in command of the South Pacific Squadron.

The New York Post considers that the hard money Democrats who desire the success of their party in Ohio in spite of the rag money platform are exceedingly short-sighted, because with a Democratic inflation platform in the next Presidential canvass, a Republican victory would be sure. It adds:

"When we see a great party in a great State committing itself to this heresy of inflation and advocating it with such audacity that members of the party who have hitherto rejected the heresy—Senator Thurman, for instance—are compelled to speak with bated breath, and even to defend and excuse the heresies, we must believe that the danger is too imminent to be lightly dismissed. Should the Democrats carry Ohio in October, the danger would be far greater; or rather, instead of the danger we should have the accomplished fact of an inflation plank in the national Democratic platform. Senator Thurman and other hard money Democrats would be silenced everywhere as he has been silenced in Ohio, and the dearest wish of the Republicans would be realized."

It is reported that Don Carlos has arrested and imprisoned several of his chiefs.

KU-KLUX IN TENNESSEE. The Sparta, Tenn., Index, in its latest issue tells the following story of outrage by masked men:

"Last Saturday night a party disguised men assembled near Simpson's Mills, in this county, and in the latter part of the night some fifteen or twenty of them visited two or more places, inquiring for one Pete Burden, (colored.) They whipped one black man at [illegible], named West, and on being told that Pete Burden was frequently at Mary Lowry's (colored,) at Mr. Mitchell's place, a few miles from Sparta, they proceeded to that place. They heard a clatter of horses' feet, they looked out and saw some ten men ride up, five of whom dismounted and started in the direction of Mary's house, some 150 yards distant, leaving about five in charge of the horses. She heard some one approach and open the door softly, did not open her eyes, supposing it to be a neighbor's boy, who frequently came to see her boy, but when she heard them punching him, and heard him groaning, she opened her eyes and saw four men, two in black and two in white apparel. She asked them what they wanted with her boy. They answered that he had a pistol. This she denied, and they took him out of bed, carried him out doors, and told him to run, and when some thirty steps off one said, '—— him, fill him with holes,' at which one having a gun, fired on him, bringing him down. One or two of them went to him, and turning, said 'You have killed him.' The shooter answered, 'No, I have not.' They all quickly went up to him then, and all quickly fled in the direction of Young's Mills. The boy Pete Burden whom they had enquired for, was in another bed in the same room, and they did not disturb him. The boy George Lowry was struck by three shots, two in the back and one in the back of the head, the latter of which was fatal."

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN CLUB!

In pursuance of a call signed by a large number of our prominent citizens the Republicans of Bangor are invited to attend a meeting in

Concert Hall, Norombega,

This Evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Republican Campaign Club to promote the interests of the party in this city and section. A full attendance is hoped for. PER ORDER

Bangor, Aug 23, 1875.

LOCAL MATTERS.

The campmeeting at Northport begins to-day.

The time of the White Mountain excursion has been extended to October 1

There were eight arrests for drunkenness Saturday night.

Mr. B P Palmer, of the Boston Herald, has been in town a few days visiting relatives.

William Cary's store at East Hampden was entered by thieves on Friday night last and a quantity of cigars and tobacco taken.

The light shower last evening rendered the temperature several shades more comfortable

The Probate Court and market reports will be found on the first page this morning.

Mr. Patten will sell a valuable house house and lot at auction to-morrow after noon

The High School house is receiving a drab coat of paint It will improve the appearance of the building very much.

Mr. Schwartz is manufacturing one of his large rotary engines for his saw works on State street.

Mr. Ackerman is frescoing the Hammond street church, meanwhile services are held in the vestry

One hundred students were present during the opening week of the fall term of the Castine Normal School and more are coming.

A runaway team on Central street damaged the carriage of R. S. Prescott, Esq., considerably, Saturday.

The Penobscot Quartette are intending to give a concert at Oldtown the first of September. Mrs. Hoskins, of Oldtown, will assist as soloist

Some of the residents on Newbury street are complaining of the way the teachers are throwing dirt on the sidewalks, making them impassable and soiling the fences.

Mr. Beadman has left at our office a cucumber which grew inside of a pint bottle. It almost entirely fills the bottle, and is quite a curiosity in its way.

Mr. J. T. Downs, who has had charge of the weather printing station in this city for a year and a half past, leaves to-day for Cheyenne, Wyoming Territory, where he will take charge of the observing station.

A gentleman has left at this office a species of fungus which nobody seems to know anything about. It was found growing under a board in the vicinity of a well. It is of crimson color, and emits a peculiar pungent odor.

The Clarion portable cooking range, advertised by Wood, Bishop & Co., of this city, has become so popular that they have hardly been able to manufacture the stove fast enough to supply the increasing demand for it.

A large and enthusiastic temperance meeting was held in City Hall yesterday afternoon. The principal remarks were made by John Benson, Jr., of Newport. Other speakers addressed the large audience, and nineteen names were added to the pledge.

The Methodist Bazaar, to be held in Fredericton on the 24th instant, is designed to be a very extensive affair. The ladies and children have been at work several months in preparing matters on a grand scale. Those who may wish to attend from this city and vicinity can obtain excursion tickets.

We received a pleasant call on Saturday from E. N. Torrey, Esq., formerly of this city, but now a resident of California. Mr. Torrey left Bangor some twenty years ago and he has since resided in San Francisco, where he has held several positions in the City Government. He is now making his first visit to Maine since he migrated, and with his wife and daughter is spending a ... with relatives in this city.

The excursion Saturday from Dover to Fort Point was one of the largest that has passed through this city the present season, numbering about 1,800 persons. Some 300 ... accommodations here ... the ... A large number of Bangor people ... down on the boat ... so crowded that a great many Dover people ... the day in this city.

Water pipes have been distributed a short distance on Harlow street, and the whole distance on Prospect street. Upwards of a mile of pipe was laid last week and the work will soon be all the down town streets. The foundation of the pumping house is advancing rapidly, and work on the dam progresses as well or better than could be expected.

At the recent meeting of the Art Association no quorum was present, but the excursion committee was present and recommended that the Association take a trip to the White Mountains, as no satisfactory arrangements could be made for a down-river excursion. The recent meetings of the Association have not been very interesting, but efforts will be made to make the fall meetings more attractive.

A BIG SCARE. Yesterday morning a boy named George Clansy, who was stopping at the Exchange with his mother, strayed away from the hotel and did not return to dinner. As he was only 14 years old his mother became very much worried. The hotel was thoroughly searched, but the boy could not be found. Mrs. Clansy immediately informed the police, who searched in vain for the young wanderer, but he returned in the afternoon, having been enjoying a little sail on the river.

SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT. On Saturday afternoon Samuel Walter Packard, a lad upwards of 10 years old and son of Josiah Packard, residing on Ohio street, went fishing in Kenduskeag stream, as he was accustomed to do, and afterwards went in bathing with three other boys. While in the water he was probably taken with the cramp and sank. The boys were very much terrified, and dressed themselves before making any outcry, but subsequently went to call assistance, which arrived after the boy had been in the water three-quarters of an hour. All attempts to resuscitate him were unavailing. He was a very promising lad and is a great loss to the family. Brief funeral service will be held at the house at 9 o'clock this morning, and the body will be taken to Dixmont for burial

ODD FELLOWS EXCURSION The Stoneham, Mass., Sentinel says: Columbian Encampment I. O. O. F., of Stoneham, are taking into consideration the matter of a visit to Bangor Me. A committee has been appointed to consider and report upon the scheme; and, if deemed advisable, the Encampment will turn out in full force, and will be accompanied by a band. With their handsome uniforms they will present a fine appearance, and their well known social qualities will ensure them a good time. We are able from experience to vouch for the hospitality with which they will be received on the Penobscot Odd Fellowship is in a flourishing condition in Maine, and, if we mistake not, the Mayor of Bangor is at the head of the order in the State.

FATAL ACCIDENT. We have received a communication from Lieutenant Geo. A. Ivager, Camp Halleck, Nevada, containing a letter directed to Mr. James Carlton, of this city, in which he announces the death of Mr. Henry Carlton The latter gentleman was employed by a Mr. Dorey, residing in the Valley of Lemoyle, about ten miles distant from Camp Halleck. Sunday, the 8th instant, he was returning with a wagon and four horses to the residence of his employer, when the animals took fright and ran off. Mr. Carlton attempted to jump from the wagon, but was caught by the wheel and dragged about one mile. Finally the horses were stopped and he was brought to the hospital of the post, and every effort was made to save his life, but his injuries defied all medical skill, and death ensued shortly after his arrival. The friends of the deceased may obtain the letter by calling at this office.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

AUGUST (CRIMINAL) TERM.

HON. JOHN A. PETERS, Justice Presiding.
JASPER HUTCHINGS, ESQ., County Att'y.
RUEL SMITH, ESQ. Stenographer.

John O'Mara was sentenced on Saturday to 30 days in the county workshop for keeping a house of ill fame. The indictment was found against him last year.

The trial of Burnham Martin, indicted for breaking and entering the barn of Isaac Foster, at Argyle, and stealing a harness valued at $25, resulted in his conviction for larceny only.

The trial of Henry Quinn, of Carmel, for an aggravated assault on Henry Murphy was begun.

NORTHPORT CAMPMEETING.
The Grounds—Gathering of People—A Large Attendance Anticipated.

NORTHPORT, August 22.

The campmeeting grounds are assuming a lively appearance, especially as the opening day of the meeting is so near. A large number of cottages have been occupied for several weeks, and during the last few days a great many tents of all shapes and sizes have been pitched, and a multitude of people, whose object is to enjoy the campmeeting, have been most pleasantly passing a few days in boating, fishing and social intercourse. The low rates of fare on the City of Richmond and other steamers which touch at this point daily affords hundreds an opportunity to enjoy a pleasant sail, magnificent scenery and recreation amid good society.

Several clergymen are on the ground ready for active work next week. Rev. Messrs. Wandwell, Mathews, Gerrish, and Plummer are among this number. Large companies from Bangor, Carmel, Dexter, Rockland and Bucksport are already gathering, and everything indicates an unusually large attendance.

The courtesy, as well as the prompt business management of Hon. Hiram Ruggles, of Carmel, and I. Calderwood, of Belfast, who have charge of the grounds, secure to visitors every available comfort. A well furnished store offers goods at moderate prices, and a large and easily accessible boarding house provides meals and lodgings on reasonable terms. Visitors can but notice the neat cottages, some of them elegant in appearance, and more than thirty of which have been erected this year. D. H. S.

Bangor Centennial Festival Funds.

Mrs. E. G. Thurston, Secretary of the Women's Centennial Executive Committee of Bangor, recently sent $850 of the funds raised by the Centennial festival in this city, July 4th, to the Women's Centennial Executive Committee in Philadelphia, and has received a letter from Mrs. E. D. Gillespie, Chairman, announcing its safe arrival. The letter states that the money will be turned over to the women's building fund, $60,000 of the $100,000 required for this fund being already received. There is now $... of the sum raised by the festival ... a balance ... paid with the exception of ... [illegible]

BOWLER & MERRILL'S SAFETY DEPOSIT VAULTS.

The safety deposit vaults of Messrs. Bowler & Merrill, which were constructed this summer, were made ready for use Saturday by the putting in of the safe and deposit boxes, numbering eighty-four. When the vaults were constructed the workmen dug eighteen feet below the bottom of the cellar, coming to the "hard pan," when they began to lay the foundation, which consists of a mass of stone masonry. Upon this the vaults are built of bricks especially selected for the purpose The walls are double, having an air space which extends entirely around and over them, and the whole is rendered very secure by extra heavy iron work. The top is composed of bars of railroad iron securely fastened together and imbedded in cement. Above this ceiling of railroad iron are brick arches resting on twelve-inch wrought iron beams, thus forming air chambers, and making the vaults still less liable to be broken through by falling walls in case the building is burned. Three sides of the vaults are in the office, and the fourth faces the alley-way leading to the rear of the block. The top does not reach the ceiling by two feet so that a covert attack by burglars is not possible at any point. Two fire and burglar proof doors secure the entrance, each locking with heavy combination locks A massive chest of welded steel and iron of extra thickness, hardness, and of the best construction, locking with two double combination locks, contains the eighty-four boxes, each of which is secured by a fine combination lock. The doors of this massive chest, like those of the vaults, are dovetailed and grooved so that they shut air tight, and the former, when it is desired to lock them, are thrown into place by levers so that the combinations can be worked. Any one who admires fine mechanism will find this well worth examination, combining as it does all the latest and best improvements. To-day the vault is ready for use, and it is understood that all the boxes are taken. This probably is as perfect a burglar and fire proof construction as there is in the New England States

NEW MAGAZINES.

The September number of ST. NICHOLAS contains a variety of very pleasant and interesting contributions, along with the usual fine array of pictures. On one of the first pages is Rachel Pomery's cheery little poem of Three Times One, and there are other dainty compositions in rhyme—two of them beautifully illustrated by Miss Jessie Curtis. Of descriptive articles, the number has a full installment, bringing together in one article a collection of birds whose plumage is entirely white, giving in another an account of Some Queer Dishes, which are served in Oriental countries; and in still a third, as a companion sketch, a description and picture of a peculiar Mesopotamian boat or "Gooffah," which will open the children's eyes in wonder. There is also a full budget of stories—among the rest, a delicate, fanciful one by Emma Burt, entitled A Squirrel's Stratagem, and a thrilling narrative of a brave woman's unaided contest with a bear, which is vouched for as true. Scribner & Co Publishers N. Y.

The ATLANTIC MONTHLY for September opens with an article full of information as to the Practice and Patronage of French Art, by S. G. W. Benjamin. This is followed by a chapter of Mr. James's Roderick Hudson, and then comes the second of Mrs. Kemble's budgets of curious and delightful reminiscence, Old Woman's Gossip. Perhaps the article which will excite most attention is Colonel Waring's careful study of Sanitary Drainage of Houses and Towns—the first of a series on this important topic; but Joseph Wharton's elaborate paper on National Self Protection (taking opposite views to those of Mr Wells in the August ATLANTIC) also appeals to a large number of readers. Mr. Horace E Scudder writes very freshly and wisely of Noah Webster, under the heading of A Patriotic School-Master, and Miss Jewett whose Shore House in a former number won many admirers, contributes a delightfully real and humorous sketch of Deephaven Cronies. Oliver Wendell Holmes gives to J. F. Clarke's Exotics the tribute of a bright and characteristic review several pages in length Hurd & Houghton, publishers N. Y.

The Cincinnati Commercial congratulates itself as follows on the promised appearance of Henry Clay Dean of Ohio: "He is a man who says what he means and he means the repudiation of the national debt. He does not take the trouble to preach up inflation as an intermediary process. He goes for repudiation first, last, and all the time. He is comparatively an honest man. When he talks we shall get at the true inwardness of the Ohio Democracy."

JEFF. DAVIS. The N. Y. Nation says: "On one account, however, we regret that the lecture to the Winnebago Grangers did not come off. The address would naturally have dealt mainly with the elevation of labor and certain questions connected with capital, and the suggestions of the ex-President of the Southern Confederacy on one, and the advice of a repudiator on another, delivered to the Honest Farmer intent upon swindling his creditors, would have been an entertaining, if not an instructive address."

In a hasty reading of the letter of Maj. H. A. Shorey, of the Bridgton News, to the editor of the Temperance Album, the following paragraph escaped our particular notice:

"It may be said that Gen. Roberts may be just as good a temperance man as Gen. Connor, which I am ready to admit; and yet the record will show very clearly that he is not as good a prohibitionist."

In making the above admission the writer evidently had in view the Commercial's ostentatious parade of its candidate as a "teetotaller." See the following paragraph in a late issue of the Portland Press ... [illegible]

A correspondent writes us that ... [illegible] ... at Fort Point.

A GOOD CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT. We ... Milsbury's sheet, which the Democratic party are so unfortunate as to have to call their organ in Kennebec county. One of the leading devices in it is a caricature of Gen. Connor on crutches. The base man who could send forth from his office a caricature of the misfortunes which befel another while fighting to save his country from its infernal foes, with whom history shows that man to have been in sympathy, is capable of any crime forbidden by the laws of our country. All honest Democrats (and we trust there are some) will scorn such baseness, and turn from the party which sanctions it. The document will cut severely in a way its author does not desire or hope.—[Machias Republican.

A correspondent of the Chicago Mail says that Mrs Mary C Lincoln, widow of the late President Lincoln, has recovered from her mental aberration and is now at her sister's residence.

This was the Democratic platform in Ohio only three years ago: "A speedy return to specie payment is demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government." From the above to the present inflation doctrine shows rapid Democratic "change" in the wrong direction.

Hon. James G. Blaine will address the Republicans of Aroostook at their County Convention at Houlton, Wednesday Sept 1st.

Business Items.

Many who are suffering from the effects of the warm weather and are debilitated, are advised by physicians to take moderate amounts of whisky two or three times during the day. In a little while those who adopt this advice frequently increase the number of "drinks," and in time become confirmed inebriates. A beverage which will not create thirst for intoxicating liquors and which is intended especially for the benefit of debilitated persons, whether at home or abroad, is Dr. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic. Containing the juices of many medicinal herbs, this preparation does not create an appetite for the intoxicating cup The nourishing and the life-supporting properties of many valuable natural productions contained in it and well known to medical men have a most strengthening influence A single bottle of the Tonic will demonstrate its valuable qualities. For debility arising from sickness, over exertion or from any cause whatever, a wineglassful of Sea Weed Tonic taken after meals will strengthen the stomach and create an appetite for wholesome food. To all who are about leaving their homes, we desire to say that the excellent effects of Dr. Schenck's seasonable remedies, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, are particularly evident when taken by those who are injuriously affected by a change of water and diet. No person should leave home without taking a supply of these safeguards along. For sale by all Druggists.

Exhaustion and degeneration follow the excessive use of the senses, without due intervals of rest for repair In order to maintain the wonted energy, the force expended whether of body or mind, must be restored. When the expenditure of brain matter and other nervous elements is continued by over-work, the early extinction of life itself may be looked for as the result of such degeneration. The ingredients composing Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such as constitute healthy blood, re-establish sound nerves and senses, and will, consequently, not only prevent this exhaustion, but in most cases restore such as is lost.

The Venerable Archdeacon Scott, of Dunham, Quebec, says that he suffered from dyspepsia more than twenty-five years, but that three weeks' use of the Peruvian Syrup (an Iron tonic) has benefitted him so wonderfully that he can hardly persuade himself of the reality and people who know him are astonished at the change

Rheumatism Cure

As A Proof Notice the Results.

Capt. Stevens of the Boston Lancers says:

BOSTON, March 8, 1875

Prof Alphonse Hiller
Dear Sir—Accept my lasting gratitude for the benefit which myself and wife have experienced from the use of the wonderful medicine called the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure

For several years past I have been subject to regular attacks of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and each succeeding attack much more severe than its predecessor. The last visitation from this terrible scourge lasted three months. The best medical talent in Cambridge was called in, but no relief was experienced. I was so low on several occasions that my recovery was despaired of. When at last I rallied sufficient to discern what was transpiring about me, I learned that my wife was also afflicted with the same fearful disease. A friend, learning of our helpless condition, brought here six bottles of the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE. By the taking of two doses of this invaluable remedy she was entirely relieved. I then commenced to take it, and rapidly improved until in about a week I was completely restored. Since then I have had another attack, and one dose dispelled it. I no longer fear Rheumatism or its baneful effects. About two weeks since I recommended it to a friend who was likewise suffering, and the result was a certain cure by the use of one bottle. You can mention my name either publicly or privately in the interests of mankind. I am willing to be interviewed personally by any one desiring to know the above facts from me, and I feel fully convinced that the thousands who are to-day suffering in torments from the effects of Rheumatism and Gout, if they but knew how nearly a relief and cure was at hand, would at once resort to this sure and simple remedy, and would bless with benedictions of praise the name of the physician who gave to suffering humanity this truly effective remedy—the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE.
I remain, gratefully yours,
T. J. STEVENS,
20 Elm st., Charlestown, and 6 Cambridge St., Boston

The above testimony ought to convince the most skeptical [illegible] that a certain cure has been discovered in the

Diamond Rheumatic Cure.

The proprietor of this medicine has visited the asiles of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years making rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. In all the cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In the most chronic case it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles. By this efficient and simple remedy hundreds of dollars are saved to those who can least afford to throw it away as surely it is by the purchase of useless prescriptions.

Let any sufferer who reads this purchase a small bottle and take it according to the instructions around the package and it will not take long to convince him that paying doctors fees is money thrown away—Liniments of all kinds are useless.

This medicine is for sale at all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your Druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to the wholesale agents.

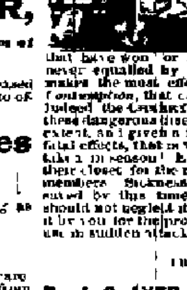
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and CONSUMPTION.



The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years by a long continued series of marvelous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

WHIG AND COURIER.

1875—VOL. XLII.

Daily Established 1834 Weekly 1815,

BOUTELLE & BURR, Proprietors.

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR

In announcing the Forty second Volume of this standard Newspaper, the Proprietors beg leave to state that during the past year they have incurred large expense in thoroughly refitting their establishment, and are determined to spare no effort in maintaining its high character as

EASTERN MAINE.

We have now one of the best appointed newspaper offices in the State, have made important additions to our Editorial, Reportorial and Correspondence corps, and are in every way prepared to furnish our patrons with a

FIRST CLASS DAILY NEWSPAPER.

With facilities at our command we hope to make this favorite newspaper more interesting and acceptable during the coming year than ever before. Our connection with the ASSOCIATED PRESS, by which we receive the whole of their despatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

of the proceedings of Congress, the State Legislature, meetings of Agricultural Societies and other public bodies, carefully corrected Financial and Market Reports, a reliable Shipping List, original and selected Stories and Poetry, a large amount of instructive and entertaining Miscellany, and a very full department of

News of This Section and the State.

In politics the paper will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. While fearless and outspoken in its treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what it believes to be right, it will avoid intolerance and make its appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be fruitful of political events of important bearing upon the future of the country, and it will be our aim to keep our readers thoroughly informed, and to favor such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people. The great interests of

of Maine will receive special attention and all the influence of the paper will be exerted in stimulating the growth and prosperity of our beloved State. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency, avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will find

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being among the best classes of the people, and as this paper affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine. On the first of January the paper will appear in but with all its best features retained and with such improvements as we trust will insure an increase of that support which it has hitherto enjoyed.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.
Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.
Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.
Holidays and Sundays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M. Also open evenings from 7½ to 8½ P. M.
Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.
A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.
The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.
First class envelopes of above furnished at $37.50 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

All Letters must be Prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents the half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue or weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.
County papers free, except to letter carrier offices, as papers coming to this office, if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.
Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre-payment compulsory; merchandise limited to 8 oz., postage 10 cents.

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

One cent an ounce, or fraction, weight limited to four pounds. Liquids, and anything that will injure mail excluded. All matter of this class must be wrapped, so as to be examined, without destroying wrappers.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time, by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15,	10 cents
over $15 and not exceeding $30,	15 cents
